PIILARS OF STRENGTH

2019 Pillars of Strength Honoree - Laura Jaramillo

Senior Vice President, Laura Jaramillo is the Community Relations Manager in Corporate Philanthropy and Community Relations. Laura manages a team of community relations consultants in Texas. She spent 10 years at JPMorgan Chase before joining Wells Fargo in 2003.

Laura has a strong commitment to her community as evidenced by her extensive board service and volunteerism. She currently serves on the boards of the Holocaust Museum Houston, Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC), the Greater Houston Community Foundation, and the City of Houston's Office of Business Opportunity Advisory Board as well as various task forces and committees. Past board involvement has included Board Chair of AAMA and Board Chair of the Houston Housing Authority.

Her passion aligns with her job as it lies in community/economic development and the various aspects that build communities, especially education and housing. Laura is a senior fellow of American Leadership Forum and the Center for Houston's Future.

2019 Pillars of Strength Speaker - Honorable Mayor Annise Parker

Annise Parker is the current Victory Fund and Victory Institute President & CEO. She previously served as a Houston City Council member, the City Controller, and the Mayor of Houston for six years. She is one of only two women to have been elected mayor. She was the first openly LGBTQ mayor of a major American city.

In 2010 Time magazine named Mayor Parker one of the 100 most influential people in the world. She was named top US mayor and seventh ranked world mayor in 2014 by City Mayors Foundation. She has received numerous awards during her career, including Scenic Houston's Scenic Visionary Award.

In addition to her duties as mayor, Mayor Parker was a member of President Obama's Task Force on Climate Preparedness and Resilience and chaired the U.S. Conference of Mayors Criminal and Social Justice Committee.

Mayor Parker graduated from Rice University with a Bachelor of Arts Degree. In the private sector, she spent 20 years working in the oil and gas industry, including 18 years with Mosbacher Energy Company.

Mayor Parker and her wife Kathy Hubbard have been together for more than 28 years and are advocates for adoption, with three daughters, a son and a grandson.
